

EU sustainable finance framework

- EU sustainable finance framework is compatible with investing in defence
- Sustainability disclosures apply horizontally across all industries and do not single out a particular sector.
- No limitations to the financing any specific sector, including the defence sector
- Defence investments, like investments in any other sector, need to be assessed on a case-by-case basis
- Specific requirements in two specific legal acts solely regarding controversial weapons, but not the defence sector as a whole